

MY CONTRACT WITH THE UNIVERSE

I, Kelsey, agree to heed the call to service, embracing my role as an instrument of peace and love in this vast universe. I recognize that I am not separate from the cosmos but an integral part of its infinite consciousness. My being is all beings; all beings are my being.

I will do my part, which means:

- Cultivating a deep understanding of love and compassion, embodying these values in all interactions.
- Serving as a pillar of positivity and kindness, inspiring others to find their path to wholeness.
- Utilizing my talents in art to create uplifting and transformative works that reflect the interconnected oneness of all beings.
- Infusing literature with oneness and love.
- Being a subtle role model for others, demonstrating the joy and fulfillment found in embracing our shared infinite ocean of being.
- Consistently striving to elevate my consciousness and expand my understanding of the universe and our place within it.

In order to do my part, I need:

- Teachers and mentors who can deepen my understanding of love and interconnectedness of the cosmos.
- Opportunities to serve others and share my gifts in meaningful ways.
- Financial resources to support my endeavors and allow me to pursue my calling without restriction.
- Inspiration and creative energy to fuel my artistic expression and communication of universal truths.
- Supportive relationships and a community of like-minded individuals who share my values.

I am willing to receive all of this and more, beyond my wildest imagination. I trust in the abundance of the universe and remain open to receiving blessings in unexpected ways and at unexpected times. I will approach each opportunity for growth with positivity and bright joy knowing that every challenge contains beauty at its heart.

With Love, Kelsey Depew, Sun Zuka
